

How to Register:

Early Registration: $95 (BEFORE February 15)

Regular Registration: $125 (AFTER February 15)

Student Registration: $75

Partial scholarships available online for full-time college and seminary students.

Space is limited; early registration is recommended.

Registration packages (includes registration, lodging, and meals) are available. Lodging reservations and event registration can be made at:

www.lakejunaluska.com/peace or by calling 1-800-222-4930.

2014 Lake Junaluska Peace Conference Faith, Health, & Peace:

Seeking the Basic Right to Good Health for All God's Children

March 27–30, 2014

The 2014 Peace Conference seeks to affirm the basic right to good health from the perspective of faith traditions, lift up "the leading causes of life," and explore ways faith communities can combat the causes of poor health, such as disease, violence, and poverty.

Leadership includes:

Dr. Christoph Benn, Director of External Relations and Partnerships Cluster for The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, Geneva Switzerland

Dr. Henry Perry, Founder of Andean Rural Health Care, and Senior Associate at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Dr. Gary Gunderson, Vice-President of Faith and Health Ministries at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center, Winston-Salem, NC

Bishop Hope Morgan Ward, Presiding Bishop of the Raleigh Area of The United Methodist Church

Dr. James Cochrane, Professor in the Dept. of Religious Studies and Senior Research Associate in the School of Public Health and Family Medicine at the University of Cape Town, South Africa

Lake Junaluska
Conference & Retreat Center

Early Registration ends February 15!